

Suntrap Book Review

A Child's Guide to Wild Flowers

By Charlotte Voake

Published by Random House Children's Books £8.99 (h/b)

Age range: Five year-old + readers

Description

Discover the names of the flowers that you see every day.

Arranged in colour for speedy identification, with extra anecdotes from winsome characters in Charlotte Voake's inimitable style; this child-friendly guide also includes keynotes on plant parts and the seasons, along with a tick-box index for keen spotters.

The Eden Project brings plants and people together. It is dedicated to developing a greater understanding of our shared global garden; encouraging us to respect plants - and protect them.

Shortlisted for the Blue Peter Award 2007
'Best Book with Facts.'

Reviews

"This is a great way of helping children to know wild flowers. I recommend this book to any parent keen to pass on a love of nature to their children." - Alan Titchmarsh

'Exquisite watercolour drawings' by Charlotte Voake Independent

'Beautiful introduction to British wildflowers' Glasgow Herald

*'Charming, entertaining, beautiful to look at, and instantly engaging for young people. Best of all it shows children that the world of wild flowers is interesting and it is worth protecting'.
Marya Jansen-Gruber, Through the Looking Glass*

'Wonderfully entertaining and never dull; a stunning reference book that adults will learn from too'. 5 stars Ink

'We have fallen in love with A Little Guide to Wild Flowers'. Sunday Express

'This is an unusual and lovely book from an award winning author and we're so pleased to see it on the shortlist for the Blue Peter Book Award 'Best book with Facts'. I recommend it to any parent keen to pass on a love of nature to their children'. Lovereading4Kids